

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

WASHINGTON, D. C.,

June 13, 1891.

O. C. Bosbyshell, Esq.,

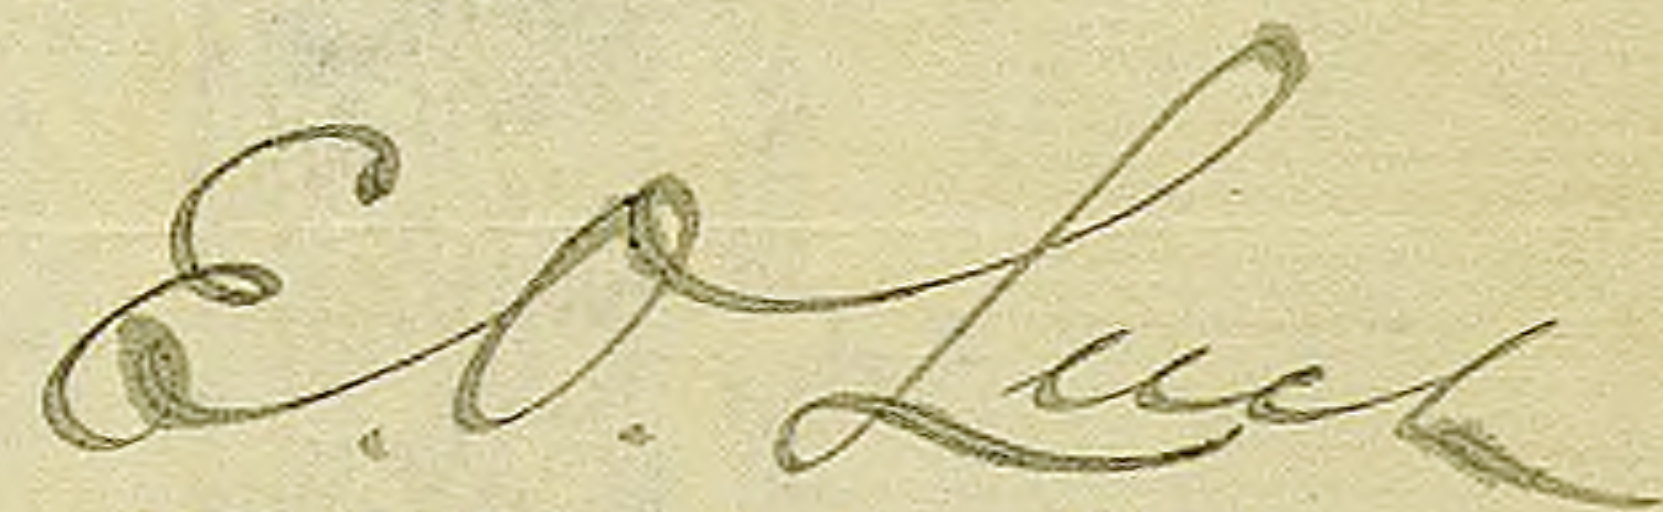

Superintendent Mint U.S.,

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of June 12th, in regard to the deposit of the money in your hands pertaining to the Appropriation for the Coinage of Silver Bullion, I have to say that the request for the advance from your appropriation for Contingent Expenses will be withheld until the certificate of deposit is received. It seems to me that the disbursements for cutting presses and ventilation of bar vaults, to which you refer, should be made from the latter appropriation, especially as you have, to-day, an unexpended balance of over sixteen thousand dollars [$16,000], in your hands and to your credit.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.
